November 12, 1942 – November 10, 2011

Eugene Lewis Best III

November 12, 1942 – November 10, 2011

Eugene Lewis "Lew" Best, III, a resident of Waco for 16 years, passed away Nov. 10, 2011, in Temple, at the local VA hospital. Graveside services will be 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 15, at Oakwood Cemetery with Pastor Darrell Price of Family Worship Center officiating.

Lew was born Nov. 12, 1942, in Waco, to parents Eugene Lewis (E.L.) Best, II and Wynette Nevada Bulmahan Best. He graduated from Waco High in 1960, and later went on to get his Bachelor's degree in Sociology at A&M University. Lew also joined the United States Navy Feb. 1, 1966, which he proudly served until he was honorably discharged in 1975. Lew had land that he farmed, did some beekeeping and was a member of many miscellaneous agricultural groups. He was a member of the Family Worship Center of Waco.

Lew was preceded in death by his beloved parents.

He is survived by daughters, Laurie Best Quintero of Hewitt, and Emily Best New and husband, Ronnie, of Cleveland, Texas, five granddaughters; and three great-grandsons.

Lew will be greatly missed by his grieving children, family and many friends.
