

In Memory Of
Virginia Sue (King) Speasmaker
September 12, 1942 – August 25, 2003

Virginia Sue King Speasmaker, 60, of Waco died Monday, August 25, 2003 at a local nursing facility.

Ms. Speasmaker was born September 12, 1942, in Crowell, Texas. She graduated from Waco High School in 1960 then received her bachelor's degree from Baylor University in 1968. At Baylor, she was a member of Alpha Beta, Sigma Pi Delta and Baylor Alumni Association. She was a lifetime member of Highland Baptist Church. She taught in area schools including St. Louis Elementary, MCC and TSTC. Ms. Speasmaker was preceded in death by her parents, Herbert Louis and Era Mae Jones King.

Survivors include brother, David L. King of Belton; niece, Desiree Marie Caufield of Spring; nephew, Joshua Louis King of Belton, uncle and aunt Thomas Dunn Jones and Antoinette Jones of Fort Myers, FL; aunt Mae Jones of Fort Worth and several cousins; a lifetime friend, Jo Ann Gerringe of Blossom and many other special friends.

Memorials may be made to Highland Baptist Church Music Department of Waco Humane Society.