

In Memory Of Robert McCauley

October 11, 1942 – October 19, 2010

Colan Robert "Bob" McCauley Sr., 68, passed away Tuesday, Oct. 19, 2010, in a local hospital. Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Friday, Oct. 22, at Connally/Compton Funeral Directors Chapel with the Rev. Curtis Holland officiating. Burial will follow at Rosemound Cemetery with the Rev. Clark Mahoney officiating. Family will receive friends 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 21, at the funeral home.

Bob was born Oct. 11, 1942, in Waco, to Clarence J. Sr. and Gladys Mae (Alvis) McCauley. He was employed by the US Postal Service, retiring after 35 years, and was employed with the City of Woodway at the time of his death. He will be remembered most for his generosity, honesty, false teeth, prosthetic leg, and unique sense of humor. Bob was preceded in death by his parents; and brother, James Harvey McCauley.

Those left behind to cherish Bob's memory are his life partner, Marianne Johnston; children, Catherine Christine McCauley, Colan Robert McCauley Jr., and Christopher Dwayne McCauley and wife, Sheri; grandson, Jacoby Christopher McCauley; brothers, Clarence McCauley Jr. and wife, Jewel, Donald Ray McCauley and wife, Wanda, and Gerald Wayne McCauley and wife, Beverly; and numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives and dear friends.

Pallbearers will be personnel from the City of Woodway.
