

In Memory Of Johnny Norris

Deceased: December 29, 2012

Johnny Norris died Saturday, Dec. 29th, 2012.

There was a Memorial event in honor of Johnny in Waco on Jan. 15, 2013 at Uncle Dan's BBQ. A lot of people were in attendance and some really cute stories of times with Johnny were told.

Little Red (Robert Wilson) had some wonderful words for us to ponder and also told a few tales of his own about times with Johnny.

The day was cold and damp but the tribute to Johnny left us with warm, fun memories of times shared many years ago as well as memories that were made at Uncle Dan's that day.
