

In Memory of Margaret Jane (Ward) Bostick
June 19, 1941 – September 28, 2010

Margaret Jane Bostick

June 19, 1941 – September 28, 2010

Margaret Jane Bostick, 69, of Crawford, passed away Tuesday, Sept. 28, 2010, at a Valley Mills nursing home. Services will be 1 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 30, at OakCrest Funeral Home, 4520 Bosque Boulevard, with Mr. Omar Hernandez officiating. Burial will be at Thornton Cemetery in Thornton. Visitation will be noon to 1 p.m. Thursday, prior to the service.

Margaret was born June 19, 1941, to Dr. Arthur and Charles Evelyn (Chic) Bostick. She graduated from Waco High School and Baylor University with BA and MA degrees. She taught freshman and sophomore English, grammar, and literature for 10 years at Baylor University. She then moved to Four-C Business College and taught business English. Her favorite and most loved job was acting as a guardian representative for Friends for Life. God saved the best for last! Another much loved job was teaching Ladies Bible Class at Columbus Avenue Church of Christ. Margaret loved God's creation and provided a home for many, many animals over the years.

She is survived by sons, Charles Clinton Bostick and Randolph Lee Bostick; and by the dearly loved brethren at Columbus Avenue Church of Christ.

Memorials may be made to Columbus Avenue Church of Christ, 307 N. 16th Street,
