

In Memory Of Elizabeth "Betty" Kay (Buckler) Thompson December 22, 2017

Elizabeth "Betty" Kay (Buckler) Thompson passed peacefully at home Friday, Dec. 22, 2017, after a lengthy battle with the complications of multiple sclerosis.

MEMORIAL SERVICE: 2 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 3, chapel of First United Methodist Church of Fort Worth with a reception following at the church.

MEMORIALS: In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Multiple Sclerosis Society North Central Texas Chapter or charity of choice.

Betty was born in Waco to William Harding and Cathryn Crisler Buckler. Betty grew up with three loving sisters, Margie Kerr, Sally Rust and Kathy Lau, in Waco, Texas. After graduating from Waco High School, Betty received her B.S. in Education from Baylor University where she was a Pi Beta Phi. Betty married Timothy E. Thompson on July 23, 1966, in Waco, then soon after moved to Fort Worth, where they began their life together.

Betty was an active member of the Junior League of Fort Worth, the Junior Women's Club (Culinary Arts) and the Jewel Charity Ball. Betty enjoyed volunteering at Campfire, Child Study Center, and the All Church Home. She was an amazing cook and loved to entertain friends and family at home. She also taught elementary school and then was a buyer for a bridal registry for many years.

SURVIVORS: Betty is survived by her devoted husband of 51 years, Timothy E. Thompson; daughter, Tracey and Chris Shaw; son, Tim Jr. and Marmendy Thompson; son, Trent and Teri Thompson; grandchildren, Mathilda, Emma and Grant Thompson. The family would like to acknowledge and thank Betty's husband, Tim, for his ceaseless loving devotion to her care. And thank the staff of Community Hospice and Klarus Home Health Care.
