FROM OUR GRADUATES:

Nena Hunt Wallace had to go to the ER during the holidays. Her husband, Bob, and granddaughter, Scarlett, (who is a policewoman with the Waco Police Department) took Nena. Scarlett had just gotten off work so she still had on her uniform and gun. Nena said when they got to the hospital, one of the nurses asked if Nena was under arrest. I laughed out loud when Nena told me that but I guess one can see how the mistake could be made if you did not know Nena or anyone in her family.

Larry Thomas: "Enjoyed both Linda (Mckee)'s dog story and the insight into Abbott and the Holland family history. Reminded me of a wedding I went to in the late sixties. It started about noon at a Catholic Church and ended about midnight after most of the people of Abbott brought some of the best food along with the traditional wedding dance and Music."

Bev Murphy Wells: "I laughed so hard at Linda's story! She should forward her story to Readers Digest! Even though Draco seems to be the culprit in the story...you can't help but fall in love with him. I'm sure Linda's professor did too! Loved the memories of your grandparents, too. My grandfather was also born in 1886, but sadly didn't live but to age 76. He served in WW1. Your grandparents (as mine) were truly the backbone of this country and what it stands for... hard work, honesty and upright living. I know those memories bring happy thoughts (and maybe a few sad) and memories you can be thankful for. God bless our families who have gone before us!"

UPDATES:

A Neat Idea:

Wine Cork Caulk Saver

Keeping around a few extra wine corks is a good idea in case you accidentally throw one away. They also work for other purposes. Synthetic wine corks are great for sealing partially used tubes of caulk. Drill a 5/16 inch hole into the cork about 1 inch deep. The cork should fit perfectly to make an airtight seal.

JOKES:

How women exaggerate what happens to them when men leave the toilet seat up...

A woman noticed her husband standing on the bathroom scale, sucking in his stomach. "Ha! That's not going to help," she said. "Sure, it does," he said. "It's the only way I can see the numbers." 🤪

I NEVER CALLED YOU STUPID, BUT WHEN I ASKED YOU TO SPELL "ORANGE" AND YOU ASKED ME THE FRUIT OR COLOR IT KINDA CAUGHT ME OFF GUARD.

I think my dog always follows me to the bathroom because I always follow him outside and he thinks that's the way it works.

Laughing at your own mistakes lengthens your life.
Laughing at your wife's mistakes shortens it.
