

In Memory of Anna Louise Logan September 5, 1942 - January 28, 2025

Anna Logan passed away, Tuesday, January 28, 2025, at Ascension Providence Hospital at the age of 82.

Anna Louise, who was named after her two grandmothers, was born, September 5, 1942, to George and Alexandria (Lehmberg) Logan. A life-long Texan and Methodist, Anna was born in Georgetown, where her family lived while her father served overseas during World War II.

Her family later moved to Waco, and Anna was educated in Waco schools before earning a bachelor's degree in education from Baylor University. After graduation, she taught second grade in Waco ISD for many years. Anna enjoyed traveling in Europe and, more recently, spending time with her friends at Providence Village, where she lived for several years.

Anna was preceded in death by her parents and her brother, Fred Logan. She is survived by her sister-in-law, Nancy Logan; her niece, Vicki Peters; her nephew, Jim Logan; and several cousins.

At Anna's request, there will be no service.
