Travis attended Elementary School in Speegelville, followed by Waco High School, where he was an All-state point guard his senior year. He was actively involved in basketball, as well as being a fisherman. He was an avid golfer for many years of his life. Travis and Betty met in high school, and their bond was strong through their 60 years of marriage.

After graduating high school Travis attended Baylor University, where he earned a degree in Business Management. After graduating Baylor, he was employed at AMA/Advertising & Marketing Assoc. (1964-1980) and was then promoted to Vice President of Sales and Marketing. Lastly, he opened TLC Digital Imaging, and ran his company until 2014, when he retired and resided in Burnet.

Travis was preceded in death by his father, Robert Neal Lawson, and his mother Bertha Lois Lawson. Travis is survived by his loving wife, Betty Joyce Lawson and daughter, Amanda Lawson-Briner. He is also survived by his sister, Shirley Moore and his brothers Robert Stephen Lawson and wife Brenda; William Benjamin Lawson and wife Kim; and Rodney Neal Lawson and wife Delissa. He is also survived by his 10 nieces and nephews.

Travis never met a stranger and was adored by all.
